

Multi-Gen Hamantashen Bake

Thursday, March 17th - 5:00-7:00pm
(In-person and on Zoom)

Come celebrate Purim at Beth Tzedec! In lieu of our regular monthly challah braid, we are holding a special Hamantashen Bake, led by chef Sara Brodsky.

This event is open to ALL families, with kids of ALL ages. There is a small fee for guests ($18 per adult). Join us in person or on Zoom. And, regardless of whether you are here at the synagogue or on the screen at home, come in your best Purim costume! We are also asking participants to bring two items of non-perishable food with you, to be donated to the JFSC Wynne Thal Pantry following the event- a lovely way to honor the Purim mitzvah of matanot l'evyonim - taking care of the needy among us. Chag Purim sameach!

Wynne Thal Pantry (Miriam's Well) Every drop in the bucket helps!

The need is great. Please do what you can by bringing any canned goods, cereal, paper products or toiletries to Beth Tzedec. Items need not be kosher. Even just one item from everyone can make a difference. Let's encourage our young children to participate in this great Mitzvah.

Bikkur Cholim: You are a Life-Line!

When our members are ill at home or in the hospital, a caring visit or phone call can lift their spirits and help them heal physically and spiritually. Please call or email Rabbi Cantor Russ (403-255-8688 or rabbibtz@bethzedec.ca) with the names of congregants who are hospitalized or are ill at home. We will arrange a visit or a caring note. Please know that we would rather receive 20 calls about the same person than none at all.

What is the connection between each Megillah and its corresponding holiday? Are the stories real? What does the Midrash have to add to the traditional text? What is this literary genre's ultimate purpose? Explore these and other questions with Rabbi Russ as you learn about the content, structure, and characters in each of the Megillot that we read during the year. March 3: Ruth, March 10: Eicha, March 17: Esther, March 24: Kohelet, March 31: Shir HaShirim

Hebrew School but Better

Thursday, March 3rd & 24th - 7:00-8:30pm

Open to all Jewish young professionals

Did you make it through a primary Jewish education with nothing to show for it except a strange feeling of guilt whenever you walk past a synagogue? This is the series for you. It turns out it's not too late to develop your own personal connection to the chain of life wisdom known as Judaism. Join Jonah Potasznik in uncovering the insights into modern life that are available to us through ancient and classical Jewish sources. We'll provide the beer and spirits; you provide the curious spirit. And don't expect a lecture - we'll discuss, converse, and if all goes well, even argue a little bit. Register at www.cutt.ly/hsbb.
