Yahrzeit Observance

It is customary to light a yahrzeit candle at home on the anniversary of a loved one's death, and to recite Kaddish during prayer services that day. Thanks to the generosity of the Zeisler Family Foundation, Beth Tzedec clergy and staff will be pleased to provide you with a yahrzeit candle.

We observe the following Yahrzeits this week of November 22 — 28, 2025

Please let one of the ushers know if you are observing a Yahrzeit this week.

READING?

Join us at Masala Art
on Thursday, November 27 at 7:30pm

Join us each month for lively conversation, good company, and great food as we explore Jewish literature together. The Beth Tzedec Book Club is open to all who love reading and discussing stories, history, and ideas through a Jewish lens.

This November, we’ll be discussing Night Owls by A. R. Vishny, an award-winning paranormal YA romance rooted in Jewish folklore. The novel follows Clara and Molly—sisters, owl-shifting estries who have survived for more than a century by following strict rules.

But when Molly’s girlfriend, Anat, disappears and New York’s hidden supernatural world erupts, Clara is forced to team up with Boaz, their mysteriously curse-ridden (and annoyingly charming) theatre coworker. Together, they confront demons, buried secrets, and the boundaries of love itself.

It’s a fast-paced, atmospheric read—perfect for fans of supernatural stories.
