Preparing for the New Year

At Rosh Hodesh Elul, we begin to stir with anticipation for this day of spiritual renewal.

By Rabbi Cantor Russell G. Jayne

Leo & Goldie Sheftel Rabbinical Chair | Norman & Beulah Martin Cantorial Chair

Because there is so much at stake spiritually during Rosh Hashanah, we make preparations beginning a full month earlier. At Rosh Hodesh Elul, we begin to stir with anticipation for this day of spiritual renewal. We ready our minds for prayer and our hearts for forgiveness by doing whatever we can to attain God's compassion and mercy when the Day of Judgment arrives.

The most prominent feature of the month of Elul is the sounding of the shofar each morning, except on Shabbat. Three primary reasons are given for this practice. The first one is to confuse the Satan about the date for Rosh Hashanah, so that he will not be able to affect God's judgment of people with his accusations against them.

The second one pertains to a rabbinic legend which says that Moses' ascent to receive the second tablets on the first of Elul was accompanied by blasts of the shofar. Therefore, the shofar reminds us of the story of the Golden Calf and that we must always be aware of our potential for sinning.

The third one has as its source the famous phrase Ani l'dodi v'dodi li from the Song of Songs, which is heard at many weddings. The phrase means I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. The first letters of each Hebrew word in this phrase (aleph, lamed, vav, lamed) form an acrostic for the word Elul. From this hint, we gather that the period extending from the beginning of Elul through Yom Kippur (a total of 40 days) is a time ripe to become beloved by God. The shofar, with its stirring, evocative call helps attune us to that loving relationship.

Ultimately though, however you choose to engage with this month of sublime preparation, I hope you will take to heart the words of the Maharal of Prague who said, "All the month of Elul, before eating and sleeping, a person should look into his soul and search his deeds, that he may make confession not out of fear, but out of love."

May the coming year be one of rebirth, renewal, and peace restored for all!

A Look Back... and Ahead

There are so many people to thank for the ongoing success of the National Minyan League.

By Susan Inhaber

Commissioner, National Minyan League

It's hard to believe we are wrapping up the eleventh season of the National Minyan League. What began as Harvey Silverstone's vision of ensuring twice-daily minyanim at Beth Tzedec has become an essential and meaningful part of our synagogue community.

This season featured a close race, with the lead changing hands a few times. Strong in-person morning attendance definitely made the difference for some teams and contributed to a few runaway scores. The winners will be announced at our annual NML Celebration Dinner, but as we always say, the real victory belongs to everyone who helped ensure a minyan for those reciting Kaddish.

There are so many people who deserve our thanks.

A heartfelt thank you to Rabbi Russ for his guidance, encouragement, and leadership. His mentorship has helped develop a wonderful group of service leaders who are always ready to step in when needed.

Thank you as well to our dedicated daveners—Lorie Abernethy, Josh Orzech, Joyce Kerr, Judy Chetner, Maxine Fischbein, and Mireille Klaver—who generously lead services throughout the year. If you would like to join this group, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Our sincere appreciation also goes to our outstanding team captains:

Karen Phillips, Josh Orzech, Mireille Klaver, Maxine Fischbein (2 teams!), David Inhaber, Bev Silverstone, Linda Garshman, Leib Zeisler, Naomi Lakritz, Gayle Sherman, Sheila Katz and Linda Gutman, Yossi Suissa and Judy Chetner, Walter Moscovitz, Lorie Abernethy, Jason Gurevitch, and Deb Silver. We also welcomed a new team part way through the season, capably led by Harvey Cyngiser. They quickly moved up in the standings and added even more excitement to the competition.

Behind the scenes, many others help make the NML successful. Thank you to Karen Phillips and Cheryl Shiell for tracking attendance in my absence, Jennifer Preece, Holly Shifrah, and Jennifer Girvitz for their ongoing support, Linda Dow for keeping the NML in the spotlight, and Ken Hillaby for maintaining our scoring system. Thanks also to Robert Preece and Adi Charikar for helping whenever needed and to Akiba Chaikar for creating our celebration meal.

Most importantly, thank you—our faithful attendees. Whether you participate with a team or as a Platinum Minyannaire, your commitment ensures that those observing yahrzeit or mourning always have a minyan. It is a beautiful act of chesed and one that makes a profound difference to our community.

We were pleased to welcome several new participants this year, and we warmly invite others to join us. If you regularly attend to say Kaddish, are a recent Keruv graduate, or can commit to attending even once a month, we would love to have you on a team. If a monthly commitment isn't possible, consider becoming a Platinum Minyannaire and joining us whenever you can.

As a small token of our appreciation, we look forward to celebrating together at our annual NML Celebration Dinner on Thursday, August 6. We hope to see everyone there as we celebrate another successful season.

Please Note

Beginning this season, our morning service schedule is changing. Morning minyanim will now be held only on Sundays and

Thursdays, with the Thursday morning minyan beginning at 7:45 a.m. Thursday mornings, along with Sunday services, will become our NML bonus opportunities (with the exception of the first Sunday evening of each month).

Because of this change, regular points will no longer be earned by attending your team's assigned morning service. Instead, team members will earn their regular points by attending their assigned evening service. We know this is a significant change, and we appreciate your flexibility as we adapt while continuing to strengthen our minyanim.

Thank you for helping make the National Minyan League one of the strongest and most meaningful programs at Beth Tzedec. Here's to another wonderful season ahead!

Volunteer Spotlight: Jeffrey R. Dworkin

This month, we're shining the spotlight on Jeffrey Dworkin, whose long-standing dedication and leadership have helped shape Beth Tzedec in countless ways. From serving on the Board and Executive to leading our congregation as President, Jeff has given generously of his time in support of our kehillah. We hope you'll enjoy getting to know him a little better through this month's Volunteer Spotlight.

What brought you to Beth Tzedec?

My parents, David^{zl} and Delsie Dworkin were members of Beth Israel since the early 60's and continued to be members of Beth Tzedec following the "merger".

What roles or volunteer activities have you taken part in over the years?

I chaired the Bingo Committee upon the retirement of Sam Fishman, until we discontinued the event. I was then invited to be a member of the Board for a year or so. I then agreed to ascend the lofty heights of executive responsibility by becoming the Secretary of the Board. In June of 2023, I was nominated for the office of President. My second term ends at the next Annual General Meeting in June of 2027.

What do you enjoy most about volunteering at Beth Tzedec?

Working with our great congregants and staff!

Is there a particular project, event or moment that stands out to you? I am impressed and proud of all of our projects, events and every moment.

What's something that people might not realize about the work that you do? I am not a very good typist and/or word processor!

What do you do outside of synagogue life?

At this particular point in time I spend most of my time looking after my elderly mom, followed by tending to Beth Tzedec matters. I am also a member of the Rotary Club of Calgary Centennial.

What does being part of this kehillah mean to you?

It means being a part of a community which cares deeply about it's faith, culture, history and future.

Coffee or tea? Coffee.

Bagels or babka? Bagels.

What's something that always makes you smile? Seeing the growing number of young families that attend the Beth Tzedec's services and programs.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Help make the High Holidays a warm, welcoming, and meaningful experience for our community! We are looking for volunteers for the following opportunities:
